The courthouse will be Red Cross headquarters, and as soon as materials and wool arrive, work will begin, garments and knitted things will be made for the war refugees.

The following chairmen were appointed:

Miss Levia Engman, Miss Elsa Mauffray, purchasing supplies. Mrs. Laurent Dickson, Mrs. Geo. Guilbault, cutting out garments. Mrs. Gladys Chapman, sewing. Mrs. E. J. Lacoste, Mrs. Nolan Ladner, surgical dressings. Mrs. Thomas G. Smith, inspector. Mrs. C. F. Jenkins, Clermont Harbor, instructor of knitting.

CHILDREN SUMMER ROUND UP

Annual Examination of Pre-School Children to be Held At Central School June 21.

The Parent-Teachers' Association is extremely anxious to have all pre-school children that are to enter school next session be given a physical examination.

The date set for these examinations will be Friday, June 21. The place will be Central School building. Arrangements have been made with the local doctors and other physicians that assisted last year to make these examinations. They will of necessity be limited to pre-school children and babies.

And the importance of these examinations cannot be stressed too much. It is necessary that a child undergo a medical check-up by competent physicians selected for this all-important work before he or she is allowed to register for school. In addition to the purpose a child may be discovered with some unrevealed ailment that can be easily corrected if taken in time.

Dr. C. M. Shipp, Hancock county health officer, will be able to assist and may be interviewed either in person at his office, City Hall, or by telephone, for further information.

Mrs. Garner, the former Miss Judith Mauffray, is assisting Mr. Garner in the conduct of the business and will attend to the thousand and one details to which this kind of business is subject to. The predominant idea will be to serve, to do that well and quickly, always with the sense of fullest responsibility.

SEDAN SCENE OF NAPOLEON LOSS IN MEMORABLE YEAR '70.

Sedan Is Scene of History Making—Lost To Allies Regained in World War I.

Ancient Sedan 146 miles north-east of Paris, was the scene of the climatic fight of the Franco-Prussian war in 1870, in which the French troops of Napoleon III were crushed. It brought about the fall of the second empire.

And then, in the World War, the Germans advancing toward Paris entered Sedan August 25, 1914, and held it four years. It fell into the hands of the Allies November 6, 1918, after a joint attack by the American Rainbow Division and the French. Strategically, the capture of the city by Germans would not mean the breaking of a French line along the Meuse river, because the town is on the right, or east, bank.

The old city probably gave its name of the sedan automobile. Sedan chairs, easy riding conveyances which carried the gentry on peasant shoulders in the 18th century, first were made in Sedan, legend has it.

The town has a population of around 18,000. Major industries are cotton mills, coal and iron mines.

Assistance of tax assessors in administering the new state law exempting standing timber from taxation, but levying a severance tax of 3 per cent of all timber cut has been asked by the tax commissioner. It is not now necessary to list standing timber on the tax rolls as the new law became effective the first of June, 1940. Two thirds of all severance taxes collected will be paid to the county where the timber is cut.

GOVERNOR ORDERED TO BED TO REST

Weak Heart, High Blood Pressure Will Send Him Back To Hot Springs.

Gov. Paul Johnson, suffering from what he described as a weak heart and "mighty high blood pressure" was expected to return to Hot Springs, Ark., as soon as possible for a complete rest.

The chief executive said doctors at the Army and Navy hospital at Hot Springs told him he was working himself "to death," and needed a rest.

"They didn't give me a single dose of medicine and they said I didn't need to take a single dose of medicine," Johnson told his press conference at Jackson Tuesday night.

Since the legislative adjournment in mid-May, Johnson had been busy with new appointments, boards, commissions and patronage matters but said he was washing his hands of patronage problems for the present.

"I have given a large portion of my time since last September to consideration of applications for jobs," Johnson declared.

"Those who have annoyed me most have received the fewest appointments. I have had men who have been to see me a dozen times asking appointments and bringing petitions for appointments. I knew then and do now they did not support me but opposed me. I feel that I am under no political obligation to them."

"I am not now in physical condition to talk patronage to my friends. I hope I will be within a few days. If they are interested in my health, they will not annoy me until I get well. If they are not interested in my health, I certainly am not interested in them. I have never forgotten a friend nor an enemy."

"I want to thank my friends at this time for their consideration during my illness, and I couldn't be too loud in my praise of the treatment afforded me at the Army and Navy hospital."

"It is my intention to return to Arkansas in the next few days just as soon as I can get affairs in shape."

"I had to come back to Jackson to sign a number of documents, advertise for bids on my schoolbooks which will be arranged tonight."

"As for the meeting of the college trustees today, I want to say I have had nothing to do with the meeting. I have not high-pressure of the election of any college employees or the discharge of college employees. I have left everything to the board. They are still in session. I do not know what they have done."

ENTERTAINS 8TH GRADE CLASS.

On last Thursday evening, Katherine Ellen Kehoe entertained the members of the eighth grade class and several members of the basketball team, of which Miss Kehoe was captain, at a dinner at Hotel Reed.

At a long table prettily decorated with spring flowers and dainty place cards, the young people enjoyed the excellent meal and the singing of a number of school songs. Miss Kehoe gave as favors memory books in which the young people inscribed their names and placed witty sayings and which added greatly to the evening's pleasure.

The chaperones for the evening were Mrs. Charles Kehoe and Miss Jane Juden, and the young people were Mary Florence Wood, Martha Molinet, Josephine Castro, Eleanor Swanner, Joyce Arnold, Carol Stevenson, Irma Ladner, Billie Stachle, Gloria Capdepon, Patsy Kehoe, Marion Bourgeois, Alzina Johnson, Betty Simpson, Frances Saucier, Iris Oliver, Mary Frances Scafile, Emily Claire Murtagh.

Sentence was deferred until June 11 to permit arguments for a new trial. (The maximum penalty that can be imposed is 5 years in prison and a fine of $1,000 on each three counts on which he was convicted.)

On Saturday evening at 8 o'clock a large crowd witnessed the Eighty-fifth annual Commencement of St. Joseph Academy when eleven students received their diplomas from the High School, and fifteen students received certificates upon completion of the eighth grade, and a number of awards were made.

The graduates, in white cap and gowns, entered in a procession to the accompaniment of music played by the St. Stanislaus College band, under the direction of Brother Romuald, and assumed their places on the stage which had been prettily decorated with huge bowls and vases of pink carnations and fern.

Marie Aline Tudury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tudury, salutatorian, made an excellent address, and Joyce Becker, valedictorian, also excellently addressed the assembly.

In the address to the graduates, Mr. Edward M. Sternberg of Gulfport, prominent speaker of the entire Coast section, pointed out the value of a Catholic education.

The Very Rev. Andrew J. Gmelch was assisted by the Rev. Leo F. Fahey in presenting the diplomas and certificates to the graduates and giving the awards as follows:

PEPPER HAS THE IDEA!

SENATOR Pepper, of Florida, seems to have a good idea. He would have this country deliver immediately to Great Britain and France all available equipment, including airplanes.

As we have said before, the attitude that one takes to this proposition depends upon whether one believes that war between the United States and Germany is inevitable if Hitler wins the present war.

Those who join Col. Lindbergh in thinking that there is no difference between the contending forces in Europe and that regardless of the outcome of the struggle we will be able to enjoy peacefully our democracy and possessions, naturally think Mr. Pepper has lost his reason.

Because we believe that failure to furnish the Allies with assistance now will increase the likelihood that we will have to oppose Hitler later with many of our young men, we think Mr. Pepper has a good idea. We would furnish the supplies and let other people provide the soldiers.

OUR GOLD WORTH HAVING.

THE monetary gold stock of the United States has crossed the $19,000,000,000 level and the experts are already beginning to worry about what will happen to this huge hoard if the totalitarian states reform the savings economy of the world.

Bankers and economists in this country have expressed the opinion that the gold standard cannot operate if Germany and her allies win the war and dominate the future economic set-up of the world. Their system of trading, involving barter and controlled swapping, tends to eliminate the necessity of another medium of exchange.

While it is written the realm of possibility, in the event of a German victory, that gold will lose some of its importance in international trade, the disability will be temporary. In fact, we do not think that the United States need worry very much about having a worthless gold stock on hand. We might worry about the possibility of losing our gold stock if this nation is ever attacked by a coalition of powers, such as Germany, Italy and Japan, after the totalitarian states have conquered Europe.

DAILY PRESS AND COST OF WAR NEWS.

IT is generally supposed by the laymen daily newspapers are making lots of money these days selling papers carrying war news. The truth of the matter is that it is quite doubtful. The true fact daily papers are probably losing money. Price paid foreign correspondents and cable tolls, even though the matter is in many instances syndicated, are tremendous, and extra sale of newspapers do not offset the heavy costs at present sustained.

Here one daily newspaper, Jackson Daily News, dwells on the subject thusly:

Gentle reader, if you know the terrific cost of getting the war news from Europe you would be carefully preserving the files of your favorite newspaper covering this eventful period in the world's history.

JUNE IS DAIRY MONTH IN STATE.

BY official proclamation Lieutenant and acting Governor Dennis Murphree made the entire month of June as Dairy Month and urges every citizen to enjoy more of the delicious, wholesome products of the dairy, such as milk, butter, cheese, and ice cream. In his proclamation Acting Governor Murphree says: "Milk and dairy products are relatively cheap foods, and scientists long have recognized the high nutritional value of milk and its products, butter, cheese and ice cream." As farmers, distributors, merchants and consumers are all vitally concerned in the products of the dairy, he urges all citizens to be liberal in their purchases throughout the month of June.

Hitler, we are told, likes the United States; he will continue to like us as long as the British and French armies keep him busy.

It won't be long now before the parties will hold their conventions and the nation will have a presidential campaign on its hands.

Graduation is a big day in a student's life, marking the beginning of an every day existence that will be marked by no graduation exercises.

Every American should be glad to make a contribution toward the relief of the civilian refugees of France and other war-stricken areas. The Red Cross has asked the people of this country for $20,000,000. Although Bay St. Louis and county have already raised their prescribed quota, yet more than that will be needed.

Acting Governor Dennis Murphree, by official proclamation has set aside Saturday, July 20th, 1940 as Mississippi Day at the Golden Gate International Exposition at Treasure Island at San Francisco, California. The governor urges that as many Mississippians as can conveniently do, attend the exposition on Saturday, July 20, in furtherance of the cordial relationship existing between the state of California and Mississippi.

DRAFTING WEALTH FOR WAR.

IF the time comes that the United States will have to go to war, there will be little vociferous objection to the drafting of the sons of the land to fight its battle, but you will hear a howl that will reach the moon if the government attempts to make wealth and property serve the needs of the nation.

We understand quite thoroughly the truth of the saying that money has no patriotism, in general, but just the same there is little equity in making some young men risk their lives in a death grapple without making those who possess the physical wealth of the nation contribute to the defense of what they own.

We understand that there is a bill before Congress, providing that in the event Congress declares war, that a wealth census be taken and that citizens be required to purchase government bonds in proportion to their wealth. We suspect that we must have read something about this bill before but, at present, we have no idea of the author of the measure and consequently our comment is entirely addressed to the merits of the general idea rather than any particular bill. Certainly, the defense of a nation includes the defense of the wealth of its citizens. Just as owners of property carry fire insurance they should be expected to pay a reasonable amount in the nature of war insurance. If the nation loses the war, the individual may lose valuable property rights and if the nation wins a war the security of property rights is protected.

The fact that millions of young men, in the prime of life, must offer themselves in defense of their country, taking the risk of losing their lives, seems ample argument for requiring the property of the nation to make a just contribution to the defense of the nation that wealth alone cannot defend.

4-H CLUBS IN HANCOCK COUNTY.

THE 4-H club boys of Mississippi are doing a wonderful work. They are not only producing high grade stock, hogs, poultry and crops of various kinds but they are paying back their loans. The work of the 4-H clubs give these boys a training which is of great value whether the boy continues in farming or engages in other pursuits. They are taught the value of thinking and planning and above all to produce the best under the circumstances.—News Register, Forest, Miss.

The 4-H clubs over Mississippi are a potent factor for present and future and should not only be encouraged but accorded material support.

The Sea Coast Echo is a firm believer in the 4-H club movement and the sentiment is expressed that in Hancock county it will be given a greater impetus by official action and by the addition of proper forces as well.

Hancock county may well be built for further development and its agriculture possibilities intensified. There is a splendid field for livestock growing. None better than right here in Hancock county. The young man who will use his hands with his head will in time have built a substantial foundation for the future. He may not immediately become wealthy—if at all, but one thing is certain, he will have built an economic permanency that none can well take away.

THE UNIVERSE Baffles EINSTEIN.

Professor Albert Einstein, who baffled many minds with his theory of relativity, admits that he, and other scientists, are completely baffled in their search for the key to riddle of the cosmos.

While expressing faith that the human intellect will eventually solve the puzzle, Dr. Einstein declares that the task appears hopeless because all logical approaches end in a blind alley, in which there is no logic, no sequence of cause and effect and no possibility of predicting events in space and time.

Last year, on the eve of his sixtieth birthday, the great scientist believed he had found a solution to the riddle. Today, he is "not as optimistic about it."

As we understand it, the theory of relativity, which explains structure of the material universe, and the quantum theory, which explains the atomic world, are entirely separate and cannot be explained in terms of one another. Thus the scientists, who understand the universe and the atoms of which it is composed, are unable to discover an all-embracing unifying principle that will cover atoms and stars, matter and energy, gravitation, time and space.

DEFENDING THE U. S. IN EUROPE.

THE best defense of the peace of this nation, and the surest way to safeguard our future, is to encompass the absolute defeat of Germany. This will be easiest while there are other strong nations engaged in the battle.

If we want to protect the young men of the United States from the horrors of modern warfare it is wise, now, to give unlimited assistance to the Allied cause.

If we want to develop our civilization normally, without having to subordinate liberty and life itself to the national defense, we should promptly dispatch equipment, arms, munitions and airplanes to the aid of the hard-pressed democracies.

The battle on the fields of Flanders and Northern France may not be essentially "our fight" but it may determine the course of the war now raging and the outcome of the war will shape the course of the United States for many years to come and mean life or death to thousands of young Americans.

NO ELECTRIC CHAIR FOR STATE.

SECRETARY of State Walker Wood, to whom the lot of making purchase fell, says he is unable to buy an electric chair for the State of Mississippi at a fixed fee of $2,500. And until such portable apparatus may be had for such price, doomed men, awaiting execution, will have to wait. Apparently the legislature knew very little about what they were doing when they failed on such important matter as the price. This is an unusual situation but in line with the unusual legislature that recently adjourned with a two-million deficit facing it at the end of two years hence.

Hollywood Notes.

ONE of the individuals in Hollywood who is likely to be hard hit by the turn of events in Europe is Charlie Chaplin, whose $1,500,000 investment in "The Dictator," about ready for release, is almost certainly doomed. The picture shows Hitler in a comedian role and audiences today are not likely to relish the idea.

Others who will probably have to shelve productions, with consequent losses are MGM, whose "The Mortal Storm" background was in the new Germany. Approximately $1,250,000 has already gone into this picture. "Escape," being made by the same company, had three weeks done on it, with considerable expense to date. Twentieth Century-Fox has three features, with a war background, which are worrying officials greatly—"Four Sons," "I Married A Nazi," and "Rogue Male."

Because of his work recently in "Waterloo Bridge," Robert Taylor is being mentioned as Katherine Hepburn's leading man in "The Philadelphia Story."

Evidently those in the White House must like "Rebecca," because the White House has asked for a print of the film for the third time.

Bette Davis' latest picture, "All This Heaven, Too," based on the Rachel Field's novel and co-starring Charles Boyer, was so long and so difficult to cut that Warner Brothers, the producers, seriously considered making it into two pictures, showing half of it one week and the other half the next. They have given up the idea though.

When William Boyd, of "Hopalong Cassidy" fame, broke his leg in the middle of the production of a picture, production went right on. A double was secured for the riding sequences and Boyd himself, with his leg in plaster cast, did the close-ups.

Mickey Rooney and Judy Garland are to be teamed in "Strike Up the Band," in which Paul Whiteman will appear as himself. It ought to be good.

Dick Powell's performance in "I Want a Divorce," his comeback vehicle after a prolonged absence from the screen, was so good that he was immediately signed for another co-starring role in "The New Yorkers."

By the way, speaking of the picture, "I Want a Divorce," every person in the cast of any importance had been or was being divorced. These included Dick Powell, Joan Blondell, Conrad Nagel, Frank Fay, Sidney Blackmer and Gloria Dickson. Realistic!

Lana Turner has been selected by a Columbia University club as "Miss Winky-Woo of 1940." Quite a title, eh!

Expressing his gratitude to his crew members for finishing "Northwest Mounted Police" nine days ahead of schedule and $125,000 under the budget, Cecil B. DeMille gave each of the 28 members of the crew a $100 bonus.

George Brent refused the role opposite Bette Davis in "The Letter" because he feared that he would be playing second fiddle to Miss Davis, as he did in "Dark Victory," in which, while he gave an excellent performance, he was completely overshadowed by Miss Davis and received little notice from the critics.

Bob Hope is a typical example of the fact that good vehicles often make actors and vice versa. After several appearances in poor stories, Hope was about to be cast aside when he made good in his role in "The Cat and The Canary" and also in "The Ghost Breakers." Now his rating is booming.

A VALUABLE MAN.

(Green County Herald)

It would be a mighty fine thing for the sixth congressional district if any person considering opposing Hon. William M. Colmer for re-election this summer would gracefully withdraw with the announcement that now is no time to force that able man into a campaign.

Colmer is urgently needed in Washington, and the people want him to remain there to aid the president during the momentous days which we all know are ahead, and for the service that he can be to all of us here at home.

Never was Will Colmer so valuable to the people. As a member of the House Rules Committee—that super committee which passes on the vital legislative policies of the country—he should be free to give his entire time and thoughts to problems of the country. If he must campaign this summer, he cannot do that. His training and experience will be of no value to the country while he is stumping the district in a campaign which can have but one result—and that is his return to office by an overwhelming majority.

Everybody knows that Bill Colmer is a good congressman. The people of the district know it, and the men in high places in Washington know it, because they placed him in positions of trust and honor. Colmer has supported the president, and has made personal calls on that great man to discuss issues effecting the people of Mississippi. The president needs men like Colmer.

The idea of our forefathers of having congressmen return to the people every two years is a fine democratic principle, and our present congressman as readily gone back each two years to receive complete endorsement. This year, with a madman on the rampage in Europe, America should meet the challenge with a firm and steady hand and act thru her most experienced leaders, and keep them on the job.

It would be patriotic gesture for anyone contemplating opposing our Congressman to graciously withdraw. It would be an act in support of the president. It would strengthen our democracy. It would be appreciated by the people.

JACKSON SQUARE IN NEW ORLEANS CONTAINS RARE IMPORTED TREES.

New Orleans, La. May 31—Among the rare trees in Jackson Square in New Orleans, the old Place d'Armes, is a "classical Myrtle" tree that was imported from Italy to grace the historical square.

One tree that is of historical importance and deserving of veneration is a tall Elm tree that was transplanted from Mount Vernon, Virginia, home of George Washington, to the square by the Daughters of 1812.

Another rare tree, the tropical Hibiscus, was imported from Hibiscus, Spain, and planted in the square. The Laurel Cherry and the Oriental Mulberry trees are riots of color when in bloom, adding color to a spot that history has made immortal.

The real economy pavement is CONCRETE

Hundreds of towns and cities throughout America have invested relief funds with real wisdom and foresight by building fine-looking, long-lasting concrete streets.

Concrete is safe to drive on—skid-resistant wet weather or dry; free from chuck holes, ruts and bumps; more visible at night. Concrete makes the whole neighborhood more attractive. Concrete streets protect taxpayers—by guarding against future burdens of excessive maintenance and frequent replacement. In the long run, they're far cheaper to own than so-called "low cost" streets that eat up funds with ever-increasing repair bills.

Experience in hundreds of cities proves that concrete is the real, low cost pavement. Don't be satisfied with inferior surfaces. Urge your city officials to invest in safe, economical concrete streets.
